

B. Completing a Chart

Use your textbook or a reference source to find how the different powers are divided between the federal and state governments. Then complete the chart below. For each power that is listed, place an X in the proper column to show whether the power is delegated, implied, concurrent, or reserved. If a power is concurrent, place a second X to show whether the federal share of that power is delegated or implied.

FEDERAL-STATE POWER SHARING

POWER	DELEGATED	IMPLIED	CON-CURRENT	RESERVED
1. Controlling public education				X
2. Borrowing money	X		X
3. Declaring war	X
4. Establishing post offices	X
5. Selling bonds	X		X
6. Governing the national capital
7. Setting up voting requirements	X		X
8. Creating a national bank		X
9. Regulating television
10. Establishing a navy	X
11. Licensing dentists				X
12. Controlling marriages and divorces				X
13. Coining money	X
14. Providing health services		X	X
15. Controlling United States citizenship	X
16. Collecting taxes	X		X	